

Joshua Christensen, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

With an impressive 25-year career, Joshua boasts a track record of facilitating over $250 Million in real estate transactions.

New York City, New York Jul 26, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Joshua is a commercial real estate broker at Realty One of New Mexico, operating from Albuquerque.

He assists investors in acquiring and managing multi-family properties throughout the state, and specializes in cash flow investments. Joshua approaches each client interaction with an eye for the experiences he brings to the table, offering a perspective unmatched in Albuquerque.

Three decades ago, his journey in the real estate industry began when, as a teenager, he ventured into custom home builds, honing his skills and gaining valuable experience. In his twenties, Joshua transitioned to the banking sector, specializing in equity lending and mortgage services. Eventually, he embraced entrepreneurship, establishing his own mortgage company and delving into property flipping and investments.

In 2012, Joshua obtained his real estate broker license, possessing extensive expertise across various aspects of the industry, including commercial real estate, multi-family investment, asset management, cash flow investment, new construction, renovation and resale, lease 2 purchase, real estate notes, property management, residential mortgage, and development.

An accomplished author, Joshua has published eight books in the Financial and Faith-based genres. His latest book, "Get UnStuck," is a financial literacy guide.

Dedicated to sharing his knowledge and expertise in personal finance literacy, he has developed courses that support higher learning in financial literacy for adolescents, teens, college students, and adults.

Recognizing the lack of financial education in traditional schooling systems, Joshua is committed to empowering individuals with the necessary financial skills to thrive in today's world.

Residing in Albuquerque, he has a deep fondness for the city and its surrounding areas, where the abundance of sunshine, with approximately 310 days of sunshine each year, allows for ample outdoor adventures, such as mountain exploration, hiking, camping, hunting, fishing, and exceptional golfing – making it an ideal location to raise a family. Joshua shares his life with his wife, two daughters, and two grandchildren.
