Winter Garden, Florida Aug 2, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Re: Celebrity Impersonators Convention and Gala

So Elvis Presley, George W. Bush, Lady Gaga and Tina Turner walk into a bar.... Is this the latest joke circulating on TikTok? No. It's probably a night at The 19th Annual Sunburst Convention of Celebrity Impersonators. This annual convention is taking place again here in Orlando. It is being held on property at The Florida Hotel and Conference Center attached to The Florida Mall.

The public is invited to attend the two showcases on September 22 & 23, 2023 where they will see over 30 professional celebrity impersonators perform and appear on stage each of the two days of showcases. Each day will be different 'stars'.

The convention is held each year as a way for professional celebrity impersonators from across the country to meet face to face to have fun and get up to date on the latest marketing and promotional trends. These professional entertainers are booked at corporate events, fairs, festivals, casinos, cruise ships and night clubs across the US, making it a multi-million (if not billion) dollar industry.

This year's convention will feature The 1st Annual Sunburst Gala of Celebrity Impersonators where the public can come and rub elbows with the "rich and famous". It will feature nearly 100 professional Celebrity Impersonators, look a likes and tribute artists. The night will include a Red Carpet entrance complete with paparazzi and press, photo stations, dancing, a live show and cash bar.

Greg and Jackie Thompson are producers of the convention, having started it back in 2004. The convention has been featured on CNN, The Rachael Ray Show, FUSE TV, Late Night With David Letterman, The Daily Buzz and many more television shows. It was the featured subject of "Just About Famous", a documentary short that is winning awards at film festivals across the United States, and has also been featured and written about in numerous magazine and newspapers all over the world.
