

Cortez Gilliams Actors Journey

Los Angeles, California Aug 8, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Director, actor, and Broadway playwright Cortez Gilliams is extending his talent full circle as he develops his newest TV series, 'The Making of the Kingpin'. Through the production of the TV series, the director and playwright turned his immense pain into immense purpose and a brooding passion. This forthcoming TV series titled 'The Making of the Kingpin' is written by Gilliams, Seda Andbarci, and Charmain Johnson, and is directed by Gilliams himself, who portrays the part of Detective Sims.

'The Making of the Kingpin' is already available on IMDB where it was summarized as "a chilling story centered around a grieving, at-risk teenage boy who witnessed his father's murder and is now seeking revenge for his father's death." The question posed by the onset of this TV mini-series is whether he will learn that revenge is not the answer. 'The Making of the Kingpin' includes several high-profile actors and young talents like Justin Jacoby, Mickey Munday, Apryl Jones, Meach Joseph, Jr., Nia Dorsey, Dominic Gamble, and Jackie Murray. "We are seeking sponsors to become involved in the making of this series, and our sponsors will earn producer credits, as well as experience a true life-changing production. They will help to make this show possible, as well as to help inspire and potentially save countless lives. Our sponsors are a crucial element to help make this production possible," Gilliams says about the project. So, people who are interested in sponsorship opportunities for the upcoming TV mini-series should directly contact Cortez Gilliams via email, at info@cortezgilliamsproduction.llc.
