The rising Queen of Ohio announced her upcoming release!

Cleveland, Ohio Aug 1, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Queen Noir announced the upcoming release of her single "mutual". The singer, rapper, and songwriter, grew up inspired by a variety of artists like Toni Braxton, Aaliyah, Brandy, Missy Elliot, DMX and many more! Her versatility, adaptation, and sound is RED HOT! The track is a 30 Hertz Beats & Skirmisher Beats collaboration. And was engineered by Wheelz AC, who runs a studio, in Medina, Oh. "I wrote the song in 10 minutes. That beat was BANGIN.

I knew the second I heard it, that it would be a hit!" She said in a local interview.

The rising Queen of Ohio was raised a Jehovah's Witness. But that didn't stop her mother from dragging her to audition for commercials like, Oscar Mayer.

"I never wanted to sing about weiners. I can remember purposely blowing those auditions by singing my own remixes. I could have won if I wanted to. My remixes sounded better. Plus, i hated hotdogs!"

"Mutual" is a mix of r&b and pop! The song is extremely relatable to almost anyone. We all know what it's like to love someone, and not get the same love in return.

"You don't love me.

Like i love you.

You ain't got me.

Like i got you.

You ain't down for me.

Like im down for you.

It ain't the same.

The love ain't mutual!"
