New Delhi, Delhi Aug 8, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Globally acclaimed EV Business tycoon, Himanshu Patel, Founder and MD of Triton Electric Vehicle (TEV) has forayed into cricket by buying the NJ Triton Team in the US Masters T10 League. NJ Triton was earlier called as New Jersey Legends and after Mr Patel's entry as the owner of the team, the team's name is changed to NJ Triton.

The team will make its entry into the ground on August 18th in Florida in the US Masters T10 League. This is said to be the shortest format of the game of cricket and cricketing legends across the globe are making this league a great and sensational attraction.

"Being an Indian by birth, love for Cricket is always with me. I am delighted to be part of this venture which is aimed to promote cricketing culture in this part of the world. I also believe that cricketing culture in the USA shall thrive with this great Tournament T10 Masters League. Being a short 10 overs game, this format is expected to catch the attention of the younger generation of the United States. Indian Americans and other ethnic nationalities US citizens of various cricket-playing nations are showing great excitement for this game. The popularity of Indian and various other cricket players is extremely high in New Jersey, USA area. Since, this part of the world I am living in for multiple decades, I believe that NJ

Tritons will become the most popular cricketing sensation in the entire USA,” commented Himanshu Patel.

The 2023 US Masters T10 League will be the inaugural season of the US Masters T10 League. The tournament will be played between August 18 and 27 at Central Broward Park in Lauderhill, Florida using a T10 cricket format.
