New York City, New York Aug 10, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A trusted physical therapist, Dr. Rashid, also known as Jay, works with patients at Family Rehab Care in Taylor, Michigan.

Family Rehab Care has been serving the Downriver Community since 2003. In 2015, Jay and his team established new ownership and have since developed an innovative approach to physical therapy. Their team views each patient as a family member and works hand-in-hand with them to help bring them to peak health.

The center offers a wide variety of specialty services, including physical and occupational skilled therapy services, Aquatic Therapy, athletic rehabilitation, wellness and health maintenance programs, a certified nutritionist, and more.

Physical therapy (PT), also known as physiotherapy, is one of the allied health professions that, by using evidence-based kinesiology, electrotherapy, shockwave modality, exercise prescription, joint mobilization and health education, treats conditions such as chronic or acute pain, soft tissue injuries, cartilage damage, arthritis, gait disorders, and physical impairments typically of musculoskeletal, cardiopulmonary, neurological, and endocrinological origins. Physical therapy is used to improve a patient's physical functions through physical examination, diagnosis, prognosis, physical intervention, rehabilitation, and patient education. It is practiced by physical therapists (known as physiotherapists in many countries).
