New York City, New York Aug 23, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Jessica is a highly skilled and experienced realtor with Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Florida Network Realty in Jacksonville, Florida.

Having earned the title of Luxury Property Specialist, Jessica has become a go-to expert for those looking to sell or buy luxury homes and other properties. She understands the value of strategic marketing and effective negotiation, going above and beyond to customize each client's experience accordingly.

Born and raised in the central and northeast areas of Florida, Jessica is a true native of the state. Her extensive knowledge of the local market and her experiences in other professional vocations have equipped her with the ability to listen attentively to her client's unique needs and desires. This enables her to provide tailored advice and recommendations that allow her clients to fully enjoy and take advantage of what the vibrant Florida/Jacksonville area has to offer.

Prior to becoming a realtor, Jessica spent many years as a musical instructor, specializing in the arts of piano, vocal training, composing, and performance. This diverse background has honed her ability to think outside the box and approach challenges with a fresh perspective.

Her journey into real estate began with her running several luxury vacation rentals, as well as building and buying/flipping a few homes alongside her husband. Eventually, this led her to obtain her real estate license and embark on her own career in the field.

When asked about her decision to pursue a career in real estate, Jessica explained, "I've always had a passion for connecting with people and helping them find a place to call home."

As a member of both the Florida Association of Realtors and the National Association of Realtors, Jessica's dedication to her craft is evident. Her unwavering commitment and determination to go the extra mile for her clients is a testament to her desire to see them happy and satisfied in finding the perfect property to call their own.

Consistently exceeding expectations and delivering exceptional results, Jessica was honored with the prestigious Honor Society Award in 2023. She attributes her success to the unwavering support of her loving family, including her mother, father, husband, and children.

Very involved in the community, she enjoys volunteering at the local schools, organizing help/gathering supplies for local charities, as well as hosting different events for local organizations that help women and children. Some of the organizations that she is actively involved in include St. John's Cares, HUGS, and Hopefull Handbags.

With music still being a big part of her life, Jessica is the Music Director at several local congregations. She loves the joy that music brings to people and the community.

Coming from an Italian family, she also loves to bake and cook.
