Kati Sol is an internationally-recognized vocalist who has performed on stages in Europe and in the US. She holds a Masters Degree in Voice and Conducting, last few years performing at venues around the Washington D.C. area, including the Warner Theatre where she opened for Melody Gardot, JamminJava, L'Auberge Chez Francois, Mr.Henry's and others.

Kati's passion for French culture shines through in her music, with French melodies and influences playing a pivotal role in shaping her unique style. Listeners often marvel at the distinctive timbre of her voice, which exudes a melodic, elegant, and warm quality. Through her heartfelt singing, Kati aspires to inspire and encourage others, harnessing the power of music as a profound expression of the soul.

'Colors of Love' program infused with enchanting French chansons and beloved jazz favorites, is a mesmerizing tribute to the beauty of music. As the captivating melodies of chansons float through the air, evoking images of charming Parisian streets and heartfelt emotions, one can't help but be swept away by the sheer elegance and allure of the French language. The infusion of jazz adds a touch of soulful rhythm, creating a harmonious blend that transports listeners to a realm of timeless sophistication and artistic expression.
