

Mista Pakman Dangerou$ Takes the Rap World by Storm with Three Album Releases on Full Moon Recordz

Mista Pakman's journey in the music industry has not been an easy one. However, his perseverance and dedication have paid off.

Sacramento, California Aug 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Sacramento-based Blackwolvez rap project's frontperson, Mista Pakman Dangerou$, is set to release not one but three albums this year on his independent label, Full Moon Recordz. The releases include "Medication & Tha Harve$T," "Hu$tle Game," and "Mobbin' Vol. 1," with each album featuring a unique style that showcases Mista Pakman's creative range as a rapper, songwriter, and producer.

Among the three albums, "Medication & Tha Harve\$T" stands out for featuring six songs produced and performed by Mista Pakman himself. Bandz N My Handz, Heavy, Ridin', Mobbin' 2 Tha Bank, Where Itz At, and Letcha Know provide a fresh, dynamic sound that balances various influences of modern hip-hop with natural edgy musicianship. Fans of rap and hip-hop will enjoy each track's different style, from the vibrant beats to the strong vocals that flow with creativity and thoughtfulness.

Moreover, "Hu$tle Game" is set to release on September 01, 2023, featuring yet another fantastic collection of rap and hip-hop songs that offer an incredible experience to fans of the genre. Each album showcases a distinct blend of Memphis Phonk G-Funk and West Coast sounds, representing the artist's growth and artistic vision. Mista Pakman's mixes cater to the lady dancers and strippers who love groovy, vibrant tunes with upbeat drums that make for a great experience.

Full Moon Recordz, which took ownership of Blackwolvez in 2020, removed the initial album releases from all digital streaming platforms this year to give more exposure to Mista Pakman Dangerou$. The record label prides itself on its respect for Mista Pakman's craft and production skills, giving the artist the freedom to experiment and deliver the best sound possible.

In addition, Full Moon Recordz will expand Blackwolvez's trademark and music with Mista Pakman's upcoming projects. Fans can expect the release of "Mobbin' Vol. 2" and another solo project in 2024 before Blackwolvez starts working on its third album. Moreover, Mista Pakman is planning to release "U Know Wussup," a collection of the best songs recorded in early 2023.

Listeners can find Blackwolvez, Mista Pakman Dangerou$, and Skitzo Thee Incredible's music everywhere music is sold online. Moreover, they can subscribe to the official Blackwolvez YouTube channel to enjoy promotional videos, albums, single releases, and links to their merchandise.
