MANILA INTERNATIONAL BOOK FAIR

Manila, Luzon Sep 13, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Chris Walkman faces an extraordinary predicament in the captivating pages of Chuck Champlin's Wand, an imaginative novel that embarks on a journey through Los Angeles in the 1990's, where Walkman finds himself armed with a unique opportunity to make a positive impact on his community and possibly the world. Champlin, hand-in-hand with Authors Press, is set to display this work of art at the 2023 Manila International Book Fair this coming

September 14-17, 2023.

Wand follows the protagonist, Chris Walkman, who suddenly finds himself entrusted with a substantial sum of $20,000 and a mission to improve the world around him— in simpler words, a mission to make the world a better place by only $20,000. Faced the weight of responsibility and the threat of a past indiscretion haunting him. Walkman partners with a homeless co-pilot, and delves into the heart of Los Angeles, determined to effect lasting change.

Wand stands out as a remarkable work of fiction that seamlessly blends imagination and reality. Champlin brings a unique perspective to the story, drawing from his own experiences and crafting a narrative that captivates readers with its authenticity. With a narrative set in the dynamic backdrop of 1990s Los Angeles, Champlin immerses readers in the vibrant culture and challenges of the era.

Readers are inspired to reflect on their own potential to effect positive change. The novel emphasizes the notion that even in a world driven by modern technology, traditional tools such as pens and broadcast antennas possess the power to shape and transform society. This novel serves as a reminder that each individual, armed with imagination and determination, has the capacity to make a lasting impact.
