

Andrea Delahunty, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Demonstrating a strong work ethic, Andrea consistently goes above and beyond to meet her clients' needs.

New York City, New York Oct 24, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A knowledgeable realtor at Lamacchia Realty, Inc., Andrea takes great pride in delivering professional, responsive, and attentive services to homebuyers and sellers.

Holding licenses in both Massachusetts and New Hampshire, Andrea focuses primarily on serving clients in New Hampshire, particularly in the Rockingham County (NH) and Essex County (MA) areas. She highly values her relationship with her Broker, Anthony Lamacchia, who has provided invaluable guidance and support during her time with Lamacchia Realty, Inc.

As a Senior Real Estate Specialist (SRES) and Certified Buyer Representative (CBR), Andrea is equipped to meet the unique needs of her diverse clientele. Her expertise extends to assisting a wide range of clients, from first-time buyers to seniors, providing comprehensive guidance and support.

Many of the New Hampshire towns Andrea serves were once considered “sleepy” little places, but in recent years, there has been a growing interest in settling in the area. She takes great pride in sharing the beauty and charm of New Hampshire, having spent her entire life in the Granite State.

Known for her unwavering honesty and reliability, Andrea places a significant emphasis on actively listening to her clients' needs and desires when assisting them in finding their dream home. Moreover, she possesses the expertise necessary for effectively marketing homes, ensuring they are sold in a timely manner.

As a valued member of the National Association of Realtors, Andrea actively participates in industry initiatives and networks with fellow professionals.

Her educational background includes a Degree in Social Psychology from the University of New Hampshire, where she graduated in 1990. Prior to her real estate career, Andrea worked as a counselor for children at St. Ann's Home and later at Hampstead Hospital. This experience equipped her with valuable insights into human behavior, adeptness in handling challenging situations, and the ability to connect with individuals on a deeper level.

Her primary objective is to facilitate a seamless transaction, not only for her clients but also for the other realtors involved and their respective clients. She emphasizes the importance of teamwork and takes pride in her ability to foster collaboration among all parties involved in the process.

When asked what her favorite part of her job is, Andrea answered: “Love that every day is different! Enjoy meeting people, listening to what they have to say, and gaining an understanding of what they need. Excited to travel to different towns, see different properties and learn new things whether it's a home inspection, listing appointment, closing, or real estate class. When you stop learning in this business, you stop growing.”

With strong roots in the Southern New Hampshire and Merrimack Valley areas, Andrea currently resides in Danville with her husband, who is a firefighter. She finds fulfillment in contributing to her local community by supporting initiatives such as the Lion's Club, local food banks, and providing assistance to families and individuals in need directly.

In her leisure time, she indulges in activities such as Hot Yoga and Pilates and savors tranquil walks along the beach while listening to the soothing waves. Andrea also cherishes quality moments with her family, with a special place in her heart for her granddaughter, Elena Marie.
