

David Cline, MD, an Internist with MultiCare Maple Valley Clinic

Get to know Internist Dr. David Cline, who serves patients in Washington.

New York City, New York Sep 14, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Cline is a primary care physician who is board certified in internal medicine, working in family practice offering full scope of care. His training as an internist and pediatrician allows him to care for patients of all ages, which he considers to be very rewarding, at MultiCare Maple Valley Clinic.

Providing thorough, accurate, and insightful medical care, Dr. Cline does his best to fully explain his reasoning and keep his patients involved in their own health care. He knows that he cannot really help without his patients being an active partner in their own health care.

“At MultiCare Maple Valley Clinic, our entire team is committed to providing you and your family with exceptional patient care. As a recognized Patient-Centered Medical Home, we focus on your individual health needs, help you make informed decisions about your care and wellness, and give you the tools you need to take charge of your health. Our goal: to become your trusted, long-term medical team and create a medical “home base” for you and your family to return to year after year” as stated on their website.

A graduate of Tulane University, Dr. Cline earned his Medical Degree from Rush Medical College and completed his residency at Duke University School of Medicine.

Staying up to date in his field, he is board certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

When not caring for patients, Dr. Cline enjoys spending time with his family, hiking, mountain biking, playing guitar, and reading poetry. He is moderately fluent in Spanish.
