In Dr. Elana Ashley's story Big Bully Holly Howler, we delve into the world of these young souls, their struggles, their dreams, and the relentless torment that had found its dwelling within the seemingly idyllic setting of a school. But it is also a story of resilience, friendship, and extraordinary courage that can be summoned by the most vulnerable among us.

Big Bully Holly Howler is a new student who shoves kids to be first in the lunch line and snatches things from other students – all without the teacher's knowledge. It seems there is nothing anyone can do to stop Holly – until Splunkey, a peace-loving detective, encourages Ellie and her best friend, Eli, to look at Holly in an entirely new way. In this delightful children's tale, youngsters learn creative ways to cope with bullies.

Dr. Elana Ashley is an author, artist, actress and puppeteer who teaches children strategies for dealing with everyday issues—with help from her educational puppet team. For more than two decades, Dr. Ashley has presented instructional and entertaining programs for students, teachers and parents within the Chicago, Illinois area, and also nationwide.

Moreover, amid the whispers in the hallways and hushed conversations in the cafeteria, a tale of hope and transformation will unfold in this extraordinary story. As we follow the journey of these children, we will witness the enduring power of the human spirit, even in the face of the darkest shadows.

Furthermore, as an educator, author, storyteller and artist, Dr. Elana Ashley presents dramatic and spiritual programs interweaving her original writings (poems, prose narratives and songs) with her artwork (mixed media and paintings) to create exciting performances and book and art exhibitions at public and private schools, libraries, park districts, and adult/senior groups, as well as at mental health centers and religious institutions.
