New York City, New York Sep 14, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Passionate about excellent patient care, Dr. Majors is affiliated with Zenith Vascular & Fibroid Center, boasting over 15 years of experience serving patients in the greater Memphis metropolitan area.

The team at Zenith Vascular & Fibroid Center strives to provide the absolute best patient care and treatments possible. Our modern approach to total well-being and aesthetics allows for our staff to create personalized treatment plans that target your specific needs and goals.

Before embarking on her professional journey, Dr. Majors graduated with her medical degree from the University of Tennessee College of Medicine in 2012. She then went on to complete her residency in general surgery and her fellowship in vascular surgery at the same educational venue in 2017 and 2018, respectively.

An authority in her field, the doctor is board-certified in vascular surgery and general surgery by the American Board of Surgery (ABS). The ABS is an independent, non-profit organization located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, founded for the purpose of certifying surgeons who have met a defined standard of education, training, and knowledge.

Vascular surgery is a surgical subspecialty in which diseases of the vascular system, including the arteries, veins, and lymphatic circulation, are managed by medical therapy, minimally invasive catheter procedures, and surgical reconstruction. A vascular surgeon diagnoses, treats, and manages conditions in the arteries and veins, also called the blood vessels. These specialists treat a range of health problems, from spider and varicose veins to life-threatening aneurysms, and can help patients manage chronic conditions throughout their lives.
