Nitesh Nia, an Indian entrepreneur, software engineer, and emerging fashion model, is carving a unique path with passion and innovation.

New Delhi, Delhi Sep 26, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Nitesh Nia is making a notable impact in the fields of entrepreneurship, technology, and fashion. Born on May 13, 2002, in the serene city of Pawapuri, Bihar, India, his journey is a testament to youthful determination, self-learning, and multifaceted passions. With unwavering support from his parents, Rina Kumari and Santosh Kumar, Nitesh is forging a remarkable path.

Nitesh's journey began with a passion for technology. Self-taught in web development, he launched his first e-commerce venture, www.niatrends.in.net, at the age of 18. This initiative rapidly gained popularity and established a loyal customer base.

In 2021, Nitesh founded Nia Trends, an Indian e-commerce company. As CEO, he is at the helm, guiding the company's growth. Nia Trends, though in the process of recognition, is dedicated to offering customers access to the latest fashion trends and a seamless shopping experience.

Nitesh is also emerging in the fashion world, reflecting his diverse interests. While not his primary career focus, his modeling endeavors showcase his passion for self-expression. Additionally, his talents in photography, Photoshop, and video editing have garnered attention on platforms like Facebook and Pinterest.

Nitesh Nia's story inspires others with his commitment to personal growth and the pursuit of dreams.

Nitesh Nia is an Indian entrepreneur, software engineer, and emerging fashion model, recognized for his role as the CEO of Nia Trends, an Indian e-commerce company. He is a symbol of innovation and unwavering determination.
