Frankfurt, Hessen Oct 12, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - They say when life gives you lemons, make lemonade — but let's be real, it's not easy to stay positive when life presents you with an insurmountable series of unexpected events because most of the time, we feel discouraged and hopeless about the situation. Even so, many still believe that there is always a rainbow after the rain.

In the upcoming 2023 Frankfurter Buchmesse this October 18-22, 2023, Casey Batson partnered with Authors Press to showcase her book titled Parable of the Unexpected Pumpkin Patch. This delightful children's book is a charming story of a little girl who loves all shades of orange, yellow, and red. Since she was born in the fall, she is greatly fond of all things that remind her of the fun and excitement of fall festivities like pumpkins and maple leaves.

It has been the little girl's tradition to decorate pumpkins of different sorts all around their house; may it be painted ones or jack-o'-lanterns, you can see it all displayed in their house. One day, it began to rain nonstop which made the little girl unhappy. But a strange thing happened, the scattered seeds from the pumpkins that she used to put up had grown into a large pumpkin vine which later on turned into a pumpkin patch that now let her harvest pumpkins to share with other people in their neighborhood.

Through this adorable story, Casey Batson intends to teach readers that even when we experience great disappointment, there are wonderful and fruitful surprises waiting for us after the rain stops. Furthermore, this thoughtful masterpiece will capture the hearts of readers of all ages and guide young readers in their outlook on life.
