London, United Kingdom Oct 5, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Caribbean Global Awards proudly announces the success of its recent event, Caribbean Global Awards, held on 30.9.23 at Leonardo Royal London St. Paul's. The event, which brought together dignitaries, government ministers, African Royals, and Caribbean achievers from various backgrounds, was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impact on all participants.

The Caribbean Global Awards aimed to unite the Caribbean Global community, celebrate each other purpose and goals, raise awareness, celebrate achievements, promote collaboration, and achieve its objectives admirably. Attendees had the opportunity to network, and foster new relationships and listened to keynote messages from HE Papa His Highness Papa Paul Jones Eganda, Baroness Patricia Scotland KC, Daniel Winterfelt MBE KC, The Bahamian Minister Lisa Rahming, Professor Rotimi Jaiyesimi, Dr Beatrice Addai Wiafe and the High Commissioner Milton Inniss read a message of thanks from Hon. Mia Amor Mottley KC Prime Minister of Barbados.

There is no doubt the event provided valuable insights and fostered meaningful connections within the community. As Diana Benskin the winner of the Journalism and Literary Award said:

"We unite easily in song and dance, For harmony's sake let us give One Caribbean a chance! Away from any political friction, Let us promote economic integration. Between the 700-strong Caribbean Islands

There have been too many missed opportunities. It's time we adopt one currency. Think of the collective wealth we could gain. A united Bank of the Caribbean" (Caribbean Unity: A collaboration of Diana Benskin & Jahmortel Emortel)

"We are thrilled with the overwhelming positive response to Caribbean Global Awards," said Michaelene Holder-March Sole Founder of the Caribbean Global Awards. "It was inspiring to see so many individuals come together to celebrate each other accomplishments, exchange ideas, support the breast cancer cause, and restore a sense of global pride in our community. We are grateful to all the judges (Professor Rotimi Jaiyesimi, Dr Michael Bruce-de-Rouche, Dr SherryAnn Dixon, Tricia Zenisa George (Chairwoman), Rudolph Walker CBE, David Smith, Lucylla Baynes, Rudi Page and Michelline Howard including the independent judges Professor Elsa Wilkin-Armbrister (Minister Counsellor at the High Commission of St. Kitts and Nevis, London), Dr John Bolodeoku, Yana Flame, Armando Terribili, Dr Clifford Thomas and Barrister Antoinette Rita Okoie who contributed to a fair scoring. This event's success was due to the Caribbean Global Awards Team who diligently worked day and night to make this event a tremendous success." The event's success was made possible by the contributions of the Caribbean Broadcasting Union, Interlaw Diversity Forum, EyeSam, Red Carpet News TV Alexander Sasha Photography, HERA, MHM Health Consultancy, and other supporters. Caribbean Global Awards extends its gratitude to the nominees, finalists, attendees, sponsors, partners, and volunteers who played a significant role in making a memorable and impactful occasion.

Caribbean Global Awards will continue its mission of celebrating global excellence, the award is to be held on 28.09.24 (London UK Location TBC) and 24.08.24 (The Bahamas)
