

Ed Matthews, MD, FACP, an Internist with SignatureMD

Get to know Internist Dr. Ed Matthews, who serves patients in Grapevine, Texas.

New York City, New York Oct 5, 2023 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Matthews, in partnership with SignatureMD, is committed to providing patients with the finest in personalized healthcare. As a program member under his care, patients can expect a new approach to their well-being, one where time and dedication are never compromised in the pursuit of helping them lead their healthiest lives.

After graduating with honors from the University of Oklahoma, his thirst for knowledge and a desire to make a real impact in healthcare led him to Albany School of Medicine, where he pursued his medical degree and once again graduated with honors. During his time in medical school, his commitment to excellence earned him a place in the prestigious Alpha Omega Alpha Medical Honor Society.

After completing medical school, Dr. Matthews completed his residency in internal medicine at the USAF David Grant Medical Center, where he gained invaluable experience in providing comprehensive care to patients.

A Fellow of the American College of Physicians, the doctor is board-certified in internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Notably, before embarking on his medical career, Dr. Matthews served in the Air Force, where he engaged in search and rescue helicopter missions for three years. This experience not only demonstrated his dedication to saving lives but also provided him with a unique perspective on the importance of proactive and compassionate care.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in Internal Medicine are called Internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being. Happily married, Dr. Matthews finds solace in activities like gardening, golfing, and exploring the world through travel.
