New York City, New York Nov 6, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A dedicated physical therapist, Dr. Luongo practices at AllCure Spine and Sports Medicine, operating out of the office in Somerset, New Jersey.

AllCure Spine and Sports Medicine is a family owned practice that uses a multi-disciplinary approach for long lasting pain relief. It implements a formula that has proven to be immensely effective in alleviating all types of pain, by using a multidisciplinary approach all under one roof. These disciplines consist of pain management, physical therapy, chiropractic, acupuncture, and occupational therapy.

In her academic journey, Dr. Luongo achieved her Bachelor of Science Degree in Kinesiology and Exercise Science from Rutgers University in 2018. Subsequently, she pursued her Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree at Drexel University, successfully completing it in 2022.

Before becoming part of the esteemed team at AllCure Spine and Sports Medicine, Dr. Luongo gained valuable experience as a physical therapy aide at Monmouth Rehab Professionals, where she served from July 2017 to September 2019.

Physical therapy (PT), also known as physiotherapy, is one of the allied health professions that, by using evidence-based kinesiology, electrotherapy, shockwave modality, exercise prescription, joint mobilization and health education, treats conditions such as chronic or acute pain, soft tissue injuries, cartilage damage, arthritis, gait disorders, and physical impairments typically of musculoskeletal, cardiopulmonary, neurological, and endocrinological origins. Physical therapy is used to improve a patient's physical functions through physical examination, diagnosis, prognosis, physical intervention, rehabilitation, and patient education. It is practiced by physical therapists (known as physiotherapists in many countries).
