Additionally, she is certified to perform CPR, demonstrating her commitment to patient care and safety.

Reflecting her dedication to staying informed and connected within her field, Ms. Sanchez Lopez is actively involved in several professional associations. She is a valued member of the American Academy of Physician Assistants, the California Academy of Physician Assistants, the Physician Associates for Latino Health, and the Fresno Area Physician Assistant Journal Club.

A physician assistant is a health care practitioner who practices medicine in collaboration with physicians. They examine patients, prescribe medicine, and order diagnostic tests. In most cases, they work under the supervision of physicians or surgeons, but they can work more independently in some states, rural areas, and inner-city areas, consulting with physicians only when they need help with cases.

As a respected member of the medical community, Ms. Sanchez Lopez attributes her success to having always wanted to be in the medical field since she was a young girl.
