

Ellyn Turner (former Siviglia), Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent.

Combining her expertise, enthusiasm and energy for life, Ellyn strives to meet her clients' real estate goals, while building lasting relationships.

New York City, New York Dec 12, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Bringing a positive attitude and a caring nature to her work, Ellyn is a REALTOR® with EVOteam at The Real Estate Collection in Winter Garden, Florida. She works alongside her business partner and longtime friend, Veronica Cole, specializing in luxury waterfront properties.

From having sold the 7th highest value home in Central Florida in 2022 to selling the highest valued home in Winter Garden for the week of September 10th, 2023, Ellyn and Veronica are well recognized in the area and among their peers as being kind, professional with a firm negotiation style, while also being engaged in the community.

After owning a successful photography studio, and before that spending many years in marketing, a personal venture into investment properties led Ellyn into real estate. She has put her analytical and problem-solving skills to work for clients throughout Windermere, Winter Garden, Orlando, and Florida. Her ability to combine an astute investor's eye, her passion for design, and her joy for real estate allows her to create optimal outcomes for buyers, sellers, and homeowners throughout the Orlando metro area.

Passionate about her hometown, Ellyn appreciates its diverse population, culinary offerings, and vibrant events. She enjoys residing in a city that exudes a small-town ambiance and is surrounded by the Butler Chain of Lakes.

Interestingly, Ellyn decided to venture into the real estate industry alongside Veronica Cole, with whom she has shared a close bond for thirty years. Their decision was influenced by negative experiences they had encountered during the sale of their own lakefront homes many years ago.

From that point forward, Ellyn and Veronica vowed to prioritize their clients' needs and act as their advocates.

A large portion of EVOteams' business is referral driven with most being repeat clients since the services they provide are beyond compare, no matter the individual clients' circumstance. They integrate professional standards, industry philosophy, negotiation skills, and creative marketing for their clients around the clock. The results speak for themselves, with a majority of their listings selling near or above list price, with minimal days on the market.

By keeping a focus on continuing education, leadership proficiencies and technology, Ellyn is able to use those resources to empower her clients and community. Throughout her career, she has earned multiple accolades, including Top 13 Residential Real Estate Team, ORRA Top Producer Diamond Award recipient, and M Club Orlando Real Producer Top 50. Education is one of the keys to her success, earning the Graduate Real Estate Institute designation and the Luxury Home Certification enables her to better serve her customers.

Ellyn and Veronica also offer a "Yellow Ribbon Commission Rebate" program which gives them an opportunity to recognize the service we all receive from First responders in law enforcement and fire & rescue, military personnel - active & veterans, medical professionals - doctors & nurses, and teachers.

Ellyn attributes her success to her compassionate nature, which has allowed her to forge strong personal connections and meaningful relationships. She consistently goes above and beyond, giving her utmost effort in every transaction.

Her unwavering determination, coupled with her appreciation for the individuals who have played a role in her professional and personal development, has been instrumental in shaping her career.

Having established a deep bond with her local community, Ellyn engages in various activities such as church participation and organizing initiatives like food drives and back-to-school drives. Through these efforts, she ensures that students have the necessary supplies and backpacks to thrive academically.

On a more personal note, Ellyn has embarked on a new chapter in her life by getting married to Troy Turner in November 2023. Consequently, she has adopted her husband's surname. Her greatest joy is her faith, family, and friends. She is also an avid traveler, having visited places from Mississippi to Monaco and beyond.
