Toronto, Ontario Nov 8, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Grand Maestro International Music Competition Announces 2023 Winners (3rd Edition) Rachmaninoff Commemorative Edition

The Grand Maestro International Music Competition is proud to announce the results of its final round for the Rachmaninoff Commemorative Edition of 2023. Esteemed jury members, including Maestro Sebastian Di Bin and Maestro Massimiliano Valenti from Italy, along with Prof. Stephen Wong from Hong Kong and Prof. Izaskun Erdociá Uranga, representing both Spain and Hong Kong, were in attendance.

The competition concluded with a remarkable display of talent from the finalists, whose performances left an indelible mark on the jury. We extend our deepest gratitude to all the participants and their dedicated teachers and parents for contributing to the success of this prestigious event.

The Grand Prize, known as the Grand Maestro International Music Competition - Rachmaninoff Prize, which includes a Free In-Person Masterclass in Italy, was awarded to pianist Mariya Akhadjanova from the USA. The Grand Maestro International Music Competition will cover the tuition fees for this masterclass.

The 2023 Grand Maestro Music Youth Scholarship, along with a special trophy, has been awarded to violinist Teia Lee from Singapore, in recognition of her promising talent.

The esteemed Grand Maestro International Artist Ambassador Prize was presented to pianist Lin Chih-Yi from Taiwan. This prize celebrates exceptional musical and artistic proficiency and is designed to nurture the development of young, skilled artists. Lin Chih-Yi will receive a year's worth of promotional support, including event coverage, online performance opportunities, and the creation of exclusive promotional content featuring the winner's performances and interviews.

Additionally, the competition is thrilled to announce that Lin Chih-Yi, Mariya Akhadjanova, and Teia Lee have been selected for music publication on major music platforms such as Apple Music, Spotify, and YouTube Music.

We congratulate the winners on their outstanding achievements and wish them continued success in their musical endeavors.
