

Lisa Heglar, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Serving and educating clients on investment opportunities, relocation, second homes, retirement plans, and the art of embracing the coastal lifestyle, Lisa finds something for everyone!

New York City, New York Dec 5, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A highly experienced Real Estate Broker and Sales Manager working at Sound and Sea Realty, LLC, Lisa has dedicated herself to serving the Wilmington, North Carolina area. Her areas of specialization cover residential, commercial, and land acquisition.

Having experienced relocation as a military child and spouse, Lisa brings a unique perspective to the challenges of moving, both personally and professionally. Her primary goal is client service and satisfaction, ensuring that they feel heard and well-supported throughout their real estate journey.

Holding a Nursing Degree, Lisa's entry into the real estate industry began three decades ago when she took on roles as an investor, landlord, and mentor. Over time, she seamlessly transitioned into the roles of a real estate agent, broker, and sales manager. Complemented by ongoing education in real estate, this transition allows her to share knowledge and assist others in achieving success.

Over the course of her professional journey, Lisa has earned multiple designations, showcasing expertise in Landlord Tenant Law, International Global Luxury Agent, EPro, Relocation Certificate, SRES, RLI, Realtor, Broker, CNE, and Sales Manager at Sound and Sea Realty, LLC.

Her exceptional contributions have garnered recognition through awards, placing her in the Diamond Society, earning her numerous top producer awards over the years, and positioning her among the top 5% of Realtors in North Carolina.

Her personal roots are deeply embedded in North Carolina, where Lisa was married and raised her children. Her commitment to the community is further evidenced by her dedicated volunteering efforts, particularly in supporting the local Fire Department and lifeguards. Notably, when the town of Kure Beach constructed a new fire department, it was dedicated to her family's honor, recognizing over 150 years of combined service through four generations.

Embracing a mindset of giving back, Lisa credits her success to her determination, training, and deep-seated commitment to serving others.

During her leisure time, she finds joy in activities such as painting, reading, walking on the beach, fishing, and cherished moments spent with her two golden retrievers, Bosen and Hazel.
