New York City, New York Nov 22, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - A seasoned urogynecologist, Dr. Koduri works with patients at her private practice - Women's Center for Incontinence and Pelvic Health - in Brookfield, Wisconsin. Her professional journey has been marked by a deep-seated passion for improving women's quality of life, particularly those grappling with pelvic conditions such as pelvic organ prolapse, overactive bladder, urinary incontinence, bladder, and pelvic pain.

With specialized training in medical, procedural, and surgical interventions, she offers a diverse range of treatment options to address the unique needs of each patient. Her genuine dedication to her patients is evident in her appreciation of the privilege of treating and educating women who seek her expertise.

In her practice, Dr. Koduri creates a supportive and informative environment, empowering women with knowledge about their conditions and the available treatment modalities. Through her years of service, she has become a trusted healthcare provider, making a positive impact on the lives of countless women.

Throughout her academic career, she earned her medical degree from the Northwestern University Medical School in Chicago, before completing her residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Aurora Sinai Medical Center in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Her commitment to excellence led her to further refine her expertise through a fellowship in urogynecology at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois.

An expert in her field, the doctor is board-certified in urogynecology and obstetrics & gynecology by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology (ABOG). The mission of the ABOG is to define specialty standards, certify obstetricians and gynecologists, and facilitate continuous learning to advance knowledge, practice, and professionalism in women's health.

Maintaining fellowship status, she is a Fellow of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG), and a Fellow of the American Urogynecologic Society (AUGS).

Urogynecology is a specialized field of Gynecology and Obstetrics that deals with female pelvic medicine and reconstructive surgery. Urogynecologists are doctors who diagnose and treat pelvic floor conditions such as sexual dysfunction, weak bladder, urinary incontinence, pelvic pain, and pelvic organ prolapse (when the organs drop because the muscles are weak).
