Get to know Interventional Cardiologist Dr. Vamsi S. Krishna, who serves patients in Kyle, Texas.

New York City, New York Nov 27, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - Recognized as a caring and compassionate interventional cardiologist, Dr. Krishna sees patients at Ascension Seton Hays in Kyle, Texas. In his practice, he strives to improve human wellness through a plant based whole food diet and interval exercise training.

Ascension Seton Hays (ASH) is a regional hospital with 24/7 emergency care and is certified as a level II trauma center and as a primary stroke center. They offer compassionate, personalized care within a wide range of specialties and programs to serve their communities.

Back in 2007, Dr. Krishna received his medical degree from the University of Texas Medical Branch School of Medicine and completed his residency in internal medicine at UCLA in 2010. He then went on to complete his fellowship in cardiovascular disease at the Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in 2013, before returning to UCLA to complete an additional fellowship in interventional cardiology in 2014.

An authority in his field, the doctor is board-certified in interventional cardiology, cardiovascular disease, and internal medicine by the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Cardiology is a branch of medicine that deals with the disorders of the heart, as well as some parts of the circulatory system. The field includes medical diagnosis and treatment of congenital heart defects, coronary artery disease, heart failure, valvular heart disease, and electrophysiology. Cardiologists are doctors who diagnose, assess, and treat patients with diseases and defects of the heart and blood vessels (the cardiovascular system).
