Get to know Internist Dr. James B. Stewart, who serves patients in Alhambra, California.

New York City, New York Jan 26, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Stewart is a California-based internist who specializes in the medical treatment of adults. He and his brother, Dr. John T. Stewart, opened Stewart Medical Group in Alhambra, California in 1981.

Stewart Medical Group has developed into one of the larger private practices in the San Gabriel Valley, serving a patient population of all ages. The professional staff consists of three full time physicians, two full time PA-C, and maintains a supportive staff of 25 employees.

The doctor's affiliations include Adjunct Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Southern California School of Medicine, Physician Advisor of the Utilization Review Committee at Alhambra Hospital Medical Center, Staff Physician at both San Gabriel Valley Medical Center and Garfield Medical Center, Physician Assistant Supervisor at Western University, and Clinical Assistant Professor at California Northstate University.

Growing up in San Gabriel in a large family, at a very early age, Dr. Stewart knew he wanted to be a physician and began his journey by entering the University of Southern California for pre-med. He graduated from Gonzaga University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology and went on to attend Graduate School at the University of California, Davis to complete his studies in Behavioral Science. He soon traveled to Manila, Philippines to attend one of the most prestigious schools of Medicine in Southern Asia, the University of Santo Tomas.

Subsequent to his training, Dr. Stewart attained board certification in internal medicine through the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

Internal medicine is the medical specialty dealing with the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of adult diseases. Physicians specializing in internal medicine are called internists. They manage and prevent common and complex diseases by providing comprehensive care and promoting overall well-being.

On a more personal note, Dr. Stewart met his wife, Emma, in the Philippines whom he has been happily married to for over three decades. He has three children, two girls and one boy.

Outside of work, he enjoys playing golf and hunting.
