

Lori Bryan, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

With a love for connecting with people, Lori excels in aiding sellers to find ideal buyers and helping buyers secure the best deals on outstanding properties.

Country in Boone, North Carolina. She possesses extensive personal knowledge of the NC High Country, a broad network of contacts locally and globally, and a strong commitment to client service.

Whether securing a vacation home, selling a mountain residence, investing in land, finding housing for an Appalachian State University student, or purchasing a first home, Lori is well-equipped to support her clients in all their buying, selling, and investing endeavors. She offers consultations and assistance to buyers and sellers, catering to their real estate needs in Watauga, Ashe, Avery Counties, and select areas of surrounding counties.

Lori's transition from the corporate world and humanitarian work to real estate in 2021 reflects her diverse background and skills. With 18 years in corporate roles, she gained valuable organizational, project management, and business acumen.

Her 20+ years in international humanitarian work demonstrate a commitment to addressing global issues, and her previous role as an IT administrator highlights technical proficiency, which is beneficial in today's technology-driven real estate industry. It enables her to effectively leverage digital tools and platforms.

Having traveled to over 80 countries and lived internationally for close to 15 years, specializing in program development and disaster/emergency response, Lori continues to volunteer her time to educate victims of war/genocide on the psychological, physiological, and spiritual effects of trauma.

Co-authoring "Receiving Them Well." a guide for communities of those returning from humanitarian aid or missions work, reflects her dedication to supporting individuals in their transitions.

Overall, Lori's unique blend of skills, extensive experience, and passion for humanitarian work make her a standout real estate professional. She places a strong focus on customer service and possesses a deep appreciation for the diverse needs of her clients.

Outside of her professional life, Lori finds joy in the outdoors of North Carolina, embarking on extreme hikes, exploring diverse cultures, embracing new challenges, cooking, and traveling.
