About the Author:

She is a wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother, with a deep affection for her fur babies. An injury rendered her unable to work, leaving her with ample time on her hands. She embarked on her writing journey using a pen and ledger pad, eventually acquiring a used computer, the clattering of keys intensified as her passion grew. Beginning with a single idea, her creative flow continued to unfold.

Her thoughts traversed from the spiritual to the dark and everywhere in between. A devout Christian at heart and soul, she firmly believes in the possibility of all things with God. To stay grounded in reality, she maintains a delicate balance between good and evil. With an appreciation for fiction, she enjoys infusing elements of both reality and imagination into her books.

In her literary creations, fragments of her life spill onto the pages, and she becomes intertwined with the narrative. Whether rooted in truth or fiction, she hopes that readers find satisfaction in the results of her work.
