New York City, New York Dec 13, 2023 (IssueWire.com) - An established gastroenterologist, Dr. Goldberg practices in Des Plaines, Illinois at Lakeshore Gastroenterology and Liver Disease Institute. His approach to patient care mirrors how he envisions his own family being treated – with quality care, respect, and kindness. Additionally, as of February Dr. Goldberg will also be seeing patients at Condell Hospital.

Addressing a diverse range of gastrointestinal disorders, some of Dr. Goldberg's clinical interests include pancreaticobiliary tract disease, inflammatory bowel disease, irritable bowel syndrome, peptic ulcer disease, reflux, diverticulitis, and liver disease.

A 1975 graduate of the University of Illinois College of Medicine, Dr. Goldberg performed his internship and residency at the University of Illinois. Subsequently, he pursued advanced training in gastroenterology at Tufts New England Medical Center in Boston, Massachusetts.

Throughout his extensive career, Dr. Goldberg has held esteemed positions, including serving as a former Governor of the American College of Gastroenterology and the American Gastroenterological Association as well as the former Chief of Gastroenterology and Vice Chairman of Medicine at Northshore University Healthcare. Additionally, he was on staff at the University of Illinois and the University of Chicago, teaching countless medical students, residents, and fellows.

Board-certified in gastroenterology, Dr. Goldberg is recognized as a Diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM). The ABIM is a physician-led, non-profit, independent evaluation organization driven by doctors who want to achieve higher standards for better care in a rapidly changing world.

On a professional level, Dr. Goldberg is an active member of the American College of Physician Executives, the American Gastroenterological Association, and the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy (Fellow).

Gastroenterology is the branch of medicine focused on the digestive system and its disorders. A gastroenterologist is a physician who has extensive training in the diagnosis and treatment of disorders related to the esophagus, stomach, small intestines, colon, liver, pancreas, and biliary system.

Consistently recognized as a Chicago Top Doctor by Chicago Magazine and an America Top Doctor by Castle Connolly, Dr. Goldberg is a distinguished researcher with numerous publications in various journals and abstracts. He has been an invited presenter and lecturer on numerous occasions, focusing on gastrointestinal and liver conditions.

Attributing his success to hard work and dedication, Dr. Goldberg actively engages in charitable and philanthropic efforts. His involvement extends to organizations such as NYU, Northshore University Healthcare, Operation Smile, and St. Jude's.

On a more personal note, Dr. Goldberg's preferred vacation spot is Key Biscayne, and he finds enjoyment in golf. The American Journal of Gastroenterology holds the distinction of being his favorite professional publication.
