

Berklee Student Debuts in Sold Out Concert in the Dominican Republic

ISA, Santo Domingo native debuted as a solo artist in a sold out concert with original songs and renditions of Hispanic classics.

Washington, D.C, District of Columbia Jan 19, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - ISA, a talented singer-songwriter and student at the prestigious Berklee College of Music, made her solo debut in a sold-out concert at Teatro Chao in Agora Mall in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. The concert, which took place on Thursday, January 18th, was a huge success and showcased ISA's incredible talent as a singer and songwriter.

ISA wowed the audience with her renditions of beloved Hispanic classics such as Juan Luis Guerra's "Ojalá Que Llueva Café", as well as her original songs. Her powerful vocals and captivating stage presence left the audience in awe and earned her a standing ovation.

ISA's debut concert in the Dominican Republic was a dream come true for her. "I was not expecting my first show to be sold out", said ISA when welcoming her audience, "I am grateful for the path that brought me here, sharing my original music makes a dream come true, I will continue training and working to make it happen". ISA's debut concert in her home country was a proud moment for her and her family and a true testament to her dedication and passion for music.

ISA's composing process is an intimate conversation with the world. She channels her personal experiences, observations, and the stories of those around her into meticulously crafted lyrics and musical compositions. It aims to transcend language barriers and communicate directly with the heart, evoking a spectrum of emotions to create an empowering environment.

This is not the first time ISA has graced the stage. Born and raised in Santo Domingo, ISA always had a passion for music. She began her musical journey at a young age, playing the guitar and singing in local talent shows. As a child, she won first place in a competition on the hit television show Sábado Gigante, where she showcased her musical abilities and caught the attention of many. Her talent and dedication caught the attention of Berklee College of Music, where she was accepted and is currently completing her Bachelor of Music: Songwriting. Now, as a young adult, ISA is ready to take the music world by storm with her debut as a solo artist.

ISA's debut concert was a night to remember, and her performance left a lasting impression on all those in attendance. With her incredible vocals and heartfelt lyrics, she has proven herself to be a force to be reckoned with in the music industry. She is a rising star and is sure to make a name for herself in the music industry. Fans can expect to see more of ISA in the future as she continues to share her talent with the world. They can follow her journey on social media. We can't wait to see what the future holds for this talented Santo Domingo native.

Media Contact

DMN Consulting Group

consulting@deborra.online

Source : DMN Consulting Group

See on IssueWire

