

Charlene Brown, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2023 Top Agent

Together, let's start your next journey by beginning your next "Gateway To Home!"

New York City, New York Jan 9, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Charlene is a full-time licensed realtor and member of the Overberg Team at RE/MAX Best Choice, as well as New Construction Specialist operating in the greater St. Louis and rural areas.

Her comprehensive expertise covers a wide spectrum of real estate services, specializing in residential properties, new construction, new home buyers, farm and land investments, as well as property relocation, foreclosures, and property investment,

Real estate has always been Charlene's lifelong ambition, providing her the opportunity to connect with diverse individuals daily and assist them in achieving their dream of homeownership. Her insatiable thirst for knowledge motivates her to constantly acquire new skills and generously share her expertise with others.

Committed to ethical practices, Charlene is an active member of the National Association of Realtors, adhering strictly to its Code of Ethics.

The foundation of her success lies in the unwavering support and encouragement she received from her parents, particularly her father, a staunch advocate for reading and education. This upbringing instilled in her a profound passion for continuous self-improvement and goal-setting.

Beyond her professional pursuits, Charlene actively engages in community events, including volunteering for Shop with a Cop during Christmas, supporting local food pantries, organizing lunches, and participating in parades.

Happily engaged, Charlene embraces the roles of a mother to three children and a grandmother to two grandchildren, all while sharing her home with five beloved pets. Fueled by a strong passion for animals, she finds delight in their companionship.

Furthermore, Charlene cherishes spending time with her family, camping, exploring the outdoors, riding her Teryx side by side, decorating, and antiquing.
