

Kiddopolis Launches Innovative Simulated Entrepreneurship and Innovation Hub for Kids in Canada

Helping kids develop a strong, entrepreneurial mindset.

Toronto, Ontario Jan 16, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Kiddopolis, an avant-garde simulated entrepreneurship and innovation hub for kids, is thrilled to announce its official launch in Canada. The innovative platform is set to redefine how children learn and develop essential life skills while fostering a love for entrepreneurship and innovation.

ABOUT KIDDOPOLIS

Kiddopolis is not just a place; it's a transformative experience designed to inspire and empower the next generation of young entrepreneurs in Canada. The program is committed to providing a safe, fun, simulated, and engaging innovation hub where children can explore their passions, gain crucial life skills, and cultivate a lifelong love for learning.

The mission at Kiddopolis is clear — to inspire and empower young minds in Canada by offering a unique and immersive experience that helps them develop skills such as problem-solving, critical thinking, teamwork, communication, leadership, flexibility, and adaptability.

OFFERINGS AT KIDDOPOLIS

Kiddopolis stands out with its diverse offerings, aiming to equip kids with a wide array of skills crucial for their personal and professional growth. The workshops and webinars feature a combination of entrepreneurship boot camps, design thinking, Agile methodology, Minimum Viable Product (MVP) concepts, DISC behavioral analysis, and John Maxwell's growth and leadership concepts. These engaging sessions provide children with the tools they need to thrive in today's dynamic world.

Kiddopolis is currently offering two exciting programs:

1. Behavioral Analysis for Kids \(Online\): For only $7.99, kids can gain lifetime access to effective communication and understanding skills, laying the foundation for building strong relationships.
2. Kiddopolis Kidpreneurship Bootcamp \(Online / in-Person\): This transformative bootcamp incorporates insights from Kidpreneur, John Maxwell's leadership principles, and DISC behavioral analysis. Participants will unlock creativity, leadership skills, and entrepreneurial brilliance. The program includes resources such as "Kidpreneurs: Young Entrepreneurs with Big Ideas," "Kidpreneurs: Life Skills that Rock the Business World," and the exclusive "Kiddopolis Jr. CEO Spark Box," along with 50 business venture ideas for kids.

MEET THE LEAD WORKSHOP FACILITATOR

Coach Jemm Cellan, the lead workshop facilitator at Kiddopolis, brings a wealth of knowledge as a KIDPRENEURS Certified Educator, founding member of KIDPRENEURS Certified Coaches, John Maxwell Certified Coach, and DISC Certified Consultant. As a full-time product marketing professional for a premier global tech consulting firm, Coach Jemm is passionate about combining technology, education, behavioral analysis, and entrepreneurship to inspire the next generation.

Coach Jemm shares, "I never thought my interests in tech, education, behavioral analysis, and entrepreneurship would all come together in one amazing product. Kiddopolis is the result of that convergence, and we hope to inspire kids with the same passion that ignited our children."

MEET THE PRESIDENT

Joy Cellan, the president of Kiddopolis, brings a strong financial background and extensive experience in the banking industry. With previous success as an entrepreneur leading Lovejoys Photobooth in Singapore's thriving photography and entertainment industry, Joy was inspired to launch Kiddopolis after observing the positive impact on her children during the COVID-19 lockdowns.

Joy comments, "Kiddopolis started as a fun entrepreneurial activity during the COVID-19 lockdowns with our kids. Witnessing their serious engagement and the positive impact on their social interactions led us to partner with KIDPRENEUR. My husband became a certified educator and founding partner, opening doors to opportunities to help kids around the age of our children."

Kiddopolis is now open for registration, offering a unique and enriching experience for children across Canada. For more information, please visit www.mykiddopolis.com or contact info@mykiddopolis.com.
