New York City, New York Jan 26, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - A family physician, Dr. Robbins stands as a beacon of dedication and expertise in the field of healthcare, combining her extensive medical knowledge with recent business acumen to serve as the Chief of Staff at Rawlins County Health Center. As a primary care physician and a wound care specialist, she goes beyond the traditional role of a healthcare provider, educating patients on preventive measures and wellness practices.

Before embarking on her professional journey, her academic journey includes a Bachelor of Arts in Chemistry from Taylor University, a Doctor of Medicine (MD) from Indiana University School of Medicine, and holds a newly acquired Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Western Governors University.

An expert in her field, Dr. Robbins is board-certified in family medicine by the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM). The ABFM is a non-profit, independent medical association of American physicians who practice family medicine and its sub-specialties.

Her leadership journey is characterized by a proven track record of innovation and problem-solving. She is a former county commissioner, demonstrating her advocacy for citizens' rights, and securing grants and funding for crucial infrastructure projects. Her efforts were recognized through multiple awards, establishing her as one of the best politicians and physicians in Wells County, Indiana.

Family medicine is a medical specialty devoted to comprehensive health care for people of all ages. The specialist is called a family physician or family doctor. A family physician is often the first person a patient sees when seeking healthcare services. They examine and treat patients with a wide range of conditions and refer those with serious ailments to a specialist or appropriate facility.
