New York City, New York Feb 29, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Dr. Fonoimoana brings her expertise to Wellness Kuleana, LLC in Kahului, Hawaii, where she serves as a licensed clinical psychologist. Additionally, her status as a licensed clinical social worker demonstrates her approach to providing comprehensive care to her clients.

Educationally, Dr. Fonoimoana holds a Bachelor of Social Work Degree from Brigham Young University (1992), a Master of Social Work Degree from the University of Hawaii (1997), and a Doctor of Psychology Degree from Argosy University, Hawaii (2007).

Prior to joining Wellness Kuleana, LLC, she served as a Clinical Director at Bobby Benson Center and worked as a licensed clinical psychologist with Nā Pu‘uwai Native Hawaiian Health Care System. These roles provided her with diverse experiences and insights into addressing a broad spectrum of mental health issues across various populations.

With a rich background in both academia and three decades of practical experience, Dr. Fonoimoana is well-equipped to address the complex needs of individuals seeking mental health support in her community. Her commitment to ongoing professional development and her dedication to serving others reflect her passion for the field of behavioral health.

Psychology is the science of behavior and mind. It includes the study of conscious and unconscious phenomena, as well as feeling and thought. It is an academic discipline of immense scope. Psychologists assess, diagnose, and treat the psychological problems and behavioral dysfunctions resulting from, or related to, physical and mental health. In addition, they play a major role in the promotion of healthy behavior, preventing diseases and improving patients' quality of life.

Clinical social work is a healthcare profession based on theories and methods of prevention and treatment in providing mental-health/healthcare services, with a special focus on behavioral and bio-psychosocial problems and disorders. A Licensed Clinical Social Worker (LCSW) is a mental health professional who provides counseling, evaluation, intervention, and case management services to those who are suffering from mental, social, familial and/or medical issues.
