

Advocate Parth Singh Embarks on Dream Journey to Columbia University for Master of Laws Program

Chandigarh, India Apr 1, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - In an inspiring development for the legal fraternity, Advocate Parth Singh, a distinguished former Law Clerk cum Research Assistant at the Supreme Court of India, has been accepted into the prestigious Master of Laws (LLM) program at Columbia Law School, for the academic year 2024-2025.

Singh, an alumnus of Jindal Global Law School (JGLS), where he pursued his B.A.LL.B (Hons) beginning in 2016, credits his success to the mentorship and guidance received from eminent legal scholars and professionals, including Hon'ble Mr. Justice M.M. Sundresh of the Supreme Court of India and JGU Vice Chancellor Professor C. Raj Kumar. Singh's academic journey has been marked by profound influences from professors and mentors who have deeply believed in his potential and guided him towards achieving his dream of joining an Ivy League institution.

His acceptance into Columbia Law School, known for its rigorous selection process and commitment to fostering a diverse and talented student body, is a testament to Singh's hard work, dedication, and the unwavering support of his mentors, peers, and family. Singh expresses his gratitude to all who have supported him in his journey, emphasizing the role of his alma mater, JGLS, and his professors in shaping his professional path.

Singh's acceptance into this prestigious program marks a significant milestone in his career and serves as an inspiration to aspiring law students worldwide. He looks forward to embarking on this new chapter, contributing to the field of law, and sharing his experiences with the global legal community.
