Maine, United States Mar 11, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dan the Tire Man, a leading provider of tires and custom rims, has announced the launch of their highly anticipated no-hard credit check financing program. This innovative initiative aims to revolutionize the tire leasing industry by offering customers a hassle-free solution to obtaining new tires and custom rims, irrespective of their credit history.

Accessible Tire Leasing for All

Recognizing the challenges faced by individuals with poor or no credit history, Dan the Tire Man is committed to providing accessible tire leasing options. With the introduction of the no-hard credit check financing program, customers can now enjoy the convenience of lease-to-own arrangements without the stress of traditional credit checks.

Extensive Selection of Quality Products

At Dan the Tire Man, customers can choose from a diverse range of major brand tires and custom rims suitable for all types of vehicles, including trucks, cars, motorcycles, ATVs, and semi-trucks. Whether it's for everyday commuting or off-road adventures, the extensive selection ensures that customers find the perfect fit for their vehicle.

Streamlined Application Process

Getting started with the no-hard credit check financing program is quick and easy. Customers can initiate the application process online through the Dan the Tire Man website. The simple application requires basic information, including a Social Security number or ITIN, credit or debit card details, checking account and routing number, and a government-issued photo ID. Applicants must be 18 years or older to qualify.

Fast Approval and Delivery

Upon submission of the application, Dan the Tire Man's dedicated team swiftly reviews it for approval. Once approved, customers can select their desired products and proceed to checkout. Within 2 hours (Monday to Friday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Eastern time), customers receive a DocuSign contract to complete on their device. Upon completion, the initial payment is processed, and the products are shipped to the customer's doorstep within 5 business days via FedEx, with tracking information provided.

Flexible Payment Options

The no-hard credit check financing program offers customers flexible payment options, allowing them to enjoy low payments for up to 1 year. While it is recommended to pay off the balance within 90 days (3 months in CA) to take advantage of the best deals, Dan the Tire Man understands that circumstances may vary. As such, flexible payment plans are available to accommodate customers' budgets. Additionally, customers have the option to exercise the Early Purchase Option at any point in their lease, enabling them to own their tires or wheels sooner.

For individuals in need of new tires or custom rims without the hassle of credit checks, Dan the Tire Man's no-hard credit check financing program offers a convenient and accessible solution.
