Washington, D.C, District of Columbia Mar 8, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Newcomer Courtney Kramer, Fulton County DA candidate coming under scrutiny for her association with scandal-laden Veterans for America First promotes itself as "Veterans for Trump" aka VFAP
The group and various affiliates are known to be headed by convicted felons, including Stan Fitzgerald, infamous for his involvement in the 1990s Sports Memorabilia forgery ring "Operation Bullpen".

Kramer's involvement with VFAP raises questions about her judgment and ethics as Fulton's next DA. Notably, Kramer served as a "VFAP Ambassador" and served as legal counsel involving the group's faking a Trump trademark for illegal licensing agreements.

Further complicating matters, USPTO records reveal the fraudster's legal counsel filed an application for Veterans for Trump without the requisite written authorization from Donald Trump and then proceeded to use the illegal trademark to sell merchandise and services to unsuspecting customers. Despite the application being denied, their fraudulent use continues

Additionally, the scammers use the organization to solicit donations earmarked for veterans and the Trump campaign.
