

From Compelling Narratives to Impressive Soundscapes VILYN Will Give You Every Opportunity to Get Grooving

VILYN is back with their impressive releases, from seasoned vocals to incredibly enjoyable tunes; every music lover will be thrilled to witness their profound works.

Harrisburg, Mar 11, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Being a group of profound music artists, VILYN was formed in November 2023. Their journey when their lead vocalist Sean Nelson took the initiative to form a music group, he met the lead guitarist of the band online and they started to create their first musical venture 'Tomorrow Never Ends', within two week they released the song and that was the inception of this extremely charming music band. After that, they started to create some of the most amusing and gravitating releases.

In 2023 they released another two releases, 'Shatter Me' and 'Darkest Days' also sharing their incredible musical forms that will compel you to fall in love with their craft. Sean envisioned the name VILYN from a while back which has stayed this them and everyone loved the zest of this number. They started 2024 with another of their impressive release 'Monster in Me'. By far they have dropped four songs and all of them are going extremely well. They are currently working with the production label Aizen Records.

Leaving the limitation of music, living in a world of music where music has no restriction or even genre. They make music with passion and offer hearty releases and powerful songs. Their first song 'Tomorrow Never Ends' was written collectively by Written by Matthew Montney Jr. and Sean Nelson. But their latest number 'Monster in Me' is written by Sean Nelson. Hopefully, they will continue to offer some of these impressive releases in the future as well. You can enjoy each of their releases 'Tomorrow Never Ends', 'Monster in Me', 'Shatter Me', and 'Darkest Days' on Spotify.
