

Kimberly Matthews, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

Delivering personalized attention to clients' wants and needs, Kimberly ensures that every interaction leaves a lasting impression of care and professionalism.

New York City, New York Mar 15, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Kimberly is a highly dedicated and motivated real estate agent at Real Broker, LLC in Temple, Texas. She provides exceptional service to both buyers and sellers, utilizing the latest technology, market research, and business strategies to ensure that clients' real estate needs are met.

Originally from New York, Kimberly made the move to Temple in April 2019. Her passion for the real estate industry is evident, fueled by her background in education and the armed forces. This unique combination of expertise has positioned Kimberly as a highly sought-after professional, especially among military households, who increasingly seek her guidance in their property transactions as evidenced by the rising number in 2022.

Attributing her success to her thorough and hyper-diligent nature, Kimberly has a passion for details and takes pride in advocating for her clients throughout the entire process. She remains relentless on their behalf, ensuring transparency in every aspect of the transaction. Communication and follow-through are paramount for her, from initiation to completion.

Beyond her real estate pursuits, Kimberly actively engages in her local Veterans Service Organization (VSO). She enthusiastically participates in various initiatives aimed at supporting the veteran community, demonstrating her commitment to those who have served their country.

When Kimberly is not in the office or volunteering, one will often find her in her home garden or enjoying time with her friends and family.
