THOSE LITTLE WHITE LINES

KAZ PIPER

Wilmington, Delaware Mar 12, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Fans of immersive storytelling and rich character development rejoice as a new edition of Kaz Piper's captivating novel, "Those Little White Lines," graces bookshelves nationwide. Set against the pulsating rhythms of the 1980s music scene, Piper's tale of love, ambition, and self-discovery promises to enthrall readers once more.

In this edition, readers are invited to dive deeper into the captivating world of Bridget, a spirited Australian woman whose whirlwind romance with an American rock star thrusts her into a perilous journey of desire, excess, and self-exploration. As Bridget grapples with the consequences of her illegal entry into America, she must confront her own demons and find a way to break free from the suffocating grip of her daring lifestyle.

Adding to the excitement surrounding this new edition are exclusive interviews with Emmy award-winner Kate Delaney of America Tonight Radio and Spotlight TV's Logan Crawford. These insightful discussions offer readers a behind-the-scenes glimpse into Kaz Piper's inspiration, creative process, and the themes that resonate throughout "Those Little White Lines."

"Kaz Piper's storytelling prowess shines in 'Those Little White Lines'," says Kate Delaney, host of America Tonight Radio. "Her ability to transport readers to the heart of the 1980s music scene while exploring universal themes of love and addiction is simply remarkable."
