

Singer, Songwriter, Producer, Kenny J Releases "You're A Woman" on International Women's Day

"You're A Woman" is set out to inspire women and girls globally to let them know they deserve to be heard and empowered from a man's perspective.

Northern New Jersey town of Englewood with well known talent from Silvia Robinson to Dizzy Gillespie. While his fathers influence and his love of church helped develop his passion for music, it was the talent of Dizzy and Silvia that piqued Kenny's interest in music even more.

In the early 90s he began with music production as well as playing numerous instruments from drums, keyboard, organ, bass guitar and guitar. By the mid 90s he had been a part of countless projects from Hip Hop, R&B, Latin and Gospel Music. After graduating from Music Technology at the Institute of Audio Research in Manhattan, he was ready to really further his career.

Not only did he join the group RIFF (unfortunately the pandemic halted opportunities), he was able to write and perform on "A Very Special Christmas" as well as "On This Day". He is featured in the video for the song "Relax" and sang on RIFF's version of Chicago's "You're the Inspiration". His last performance with RIFF was in April of 2023 where he did his rendition of John Legend's "All Of Me". Since then Kenny has released his single "Love Is All We Need" (original and dance remix), and now is set to speak on empowering and celebrating women from all over the world. To let them know it shouldn't take a day or a month to have a woman feel empowered, they should feel this all the time in every aspect of their life, whether it's love, family, or business. Women deserve more credit than they are given and Kenny is hoping this song gives them a bit of hope.
