POSTERBOYS

Mumbai, Maharashtra Apr 8, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Actors Milind Shinde and Veena Jamkar together on the occasion of "Parampara".

Harish Kumar the maker of popular marathi movie "Pakda Pakdi" and Andrew Joaquim Rebello of Stargate Movies presents "Parampara".

Pranay Nishakant Telang directorial 'Parampara' hits the big screen on 26th April!

"Parampara" is an intriguing film with a blend of cultural significance and contemporary storytelling. It delves into the complexities of tradition and the financial burdens that often accompany them, portraying the struggles of preserving culture in the face of modern challenges.

"Parampara" is produced under the production house Stargate Movies of Harish Kumar and Andrew Joaquim Rebello and co-produced by Faisal Popere. The film is directed by Pranay Nishakant Telang.

The cast, led by actors Milind Shinde and Veena Jamkar, along with Prakash Dhotre, Arun Kadam, Namrata Pawaskar, Kishore Ravrane, Jairaj Nair, Rohit Chavan, Prashant Neman, Bhushan Ghadi, Master Machindra, late actor Janardhan Parab promises a compelling performance.

The movie, focusing on the preservation of tradition amidst adversity, resonates deeply with audiences, particularly in Maharashtra, where cultural heritage holds significant importance. With a talented team behind the scenes, including writers Pranay Nishakant Telang and Sanjay Sawant, cinematographer Nisha Telang, lyrics penned by Mangesh Kangane have got melodious music by Anand Menon., "Parampara" seems poised to offer a rich cinematic experience. Overall, "Parampara" appears to be a film that not only entertains but in today's changing world, is also a reflection on the importance of heritage and tradition
