INHERITANCE OF

CRISES AND DYSFUNCTION

JAMES J. MAIWURM

Mclean, Virginia Apr 22, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Renowned author James J Maiwurm presents his latest literary masterpiece, "Inheritance of Crises and Dysfunction," a gripping novel that delves into the complex landscape awaiting the next US Administration, both at home and abroad.

Set against the backdrop of inauguration day in 2021, "Inheritance of Crises and Dysfunction" follows the journey of protagonist 'Salt Pepper,' a seasoned figure with a background in the US Government and a Washington law firm. Pepper's retirement plans take an unexpected turn when he is drawn into a clandestine diplomatic role by an old acquaintance about to assume the position of Secretary of State in the new Administration.

Maiwurm's narrative skillfully navigates through the intricate web of global and domestic political issues, interwoven with personal challenges such as loss, relocation, and the quest for relevance in the later stages of life. Through Pepper's eyes, readers are immersed in a world marked by deep divisions, partisan discord, and the relentless pursuit of solutions amidst chaos.

With a deft blend of history, current events, and human nature, "Inheritance of Crises and Dysfunction" offers profound insights into the complexities of international relations, the fabric of small-town America, and the urgent need for courageous leadership in troubled times. From the corridors of power in Washington to diplomatic circles in London, Berlin, and Prague, Pepper's journey unfolds against a backdrop of global turmoil and the clamor for US leadership.

"This novel is more than a mere story; it's a reflection of our reality, a call to action," says Maiwurm. "It sheds light on the challenges we face as a nation and as individuals, urging us to confront the crises head-on with resilience and determination."

As part of the book's campaign, James J Maiwurm has been featured in an exclusive radio interview with Emmy Award-winner Kate Delaney of America Tonight Radio. Maiwurm discussed the inspiration behind "Inheritance of Crises and Dysfunction" and explored the timely themes it addresses.
