Get to know Dermatologist Dr. Sarit Itenberg, who serves patients in Surfside, Florida.

New York City, New York Apr 22, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Itenberg is an accomplished, board-certified medical, surgical, and cosmetic dermatologist. She is the proud owner of SJI Dermatology in Surfside, Florida.

With her extensive medical knowledge and expertise, Dr. Itenberg is dedicated to providing the highest level of care to her patients. She believes in a holistic approach to dermatology, considering not only the physical aspects but also the emotional well-being of her patients. She takes pride in staying up-to-date with the latest advancements in the field, ensuring that her patients receive the most innovative and effective treatments available when appropriate.

Born and raised in the picturesque region of upstate New York, Dr. Itenberg has always been passionate about dermatology. She pursued her undergraduate studies at Boston University, where she excelled academically and graduated Magna Cum Laude. During her time at the university, she majored in Psychology and double minored in Biology and Nutrition.

Driven by her desire to help others, Dr. Itenberg enrolled in medical school at the New York Institute of Technology College of Osteopathic Medicine. After graduating top of her class, she began her internship year at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital, an affiliate at the time of Columbia University in New York City, and then continued her residency in allopathic dermatology at Albert Einstein College of Medicine. In her final year of residency, she served as Chief Resident, showcasing her leadership skills and dedication to the field. To stay up to date in her field she remains a Fellow of the American Academy of Dermatology.

Relocating to New Hampshire, Dr. Itenberg had the opportunity to establish a dermatology department at a local hospital in Manchester, serving as its Medical Director. Following her time at the hospital, she joined a large private dermatology group where she has practiced until opening her own private practice in March 2024.

Dermatology is the branch of medicine dealing with the skin, the largest organ of the body; a specialty with both medical and surgical aspects. A dermatologist is a specialist doctor who manages skin diseases and deals with both internal and external causes and some cosmetic concerns involving the skin. Dermatological duties include taking consultations, providing screening tests, and undertaking non-invasive surgical procedures.

Dr. Itenberg attributes her success to the unwavering support of her parents and the excellent education she received throughout her academic journey. In addition to English, she is fluent in Russian and is also proficient in Hebrew and Spanish, enabling her to effectively communicate with a diverse range of patients.

In her free time, Dr. Itenberg enjoys traveling, spending time with her family, and supporting the arts.
