New York City, New York May 8, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - Cargo Facts LATAM 2024 to Feature Modern Logistics

Cargo Facts, the publication of record for the air cargo and freighter aircraft industry, will host LATAM 2024 at the Hilton Panama, May 13-15, where key industry leaders will assess the current state of the industry and share their outlook on the air cargo sector in Latin America.

A highlight of the event, moderated by Cargo Facts Editor Jeffrey Lee will feature Modern Logistics CEO Cristiano Koga who will conduct a one-on-one discussion on the economy, trends in freighter fleets, and the outlook for the Latin American region. Over the past six months, Modern Logistics has taken delivery of two 737-800 BCF freighters, which will enable the company to pursue its aggressive plans to expand internationally. Koga's event will take place on Tuesday, May 14 at 10:15 AM.

LATAM 2024 will be a valuable forum for industry participants to share their insights and engage directly with industry decision-makers within the freighter aircraft market.

About Modern Logistics

In Drive to Dominate South American Market, Modern Logistics Takes Delivery of Second 737-800 BCF Latest acquisitions to spur company's entry into international markets Modern Logistics is pleased to announce that the company has taken delivery of a second 737-800 Boeing Converted Freighter (BCF) earlier this year, marking a significant upgrade to its fleet of air cargo aircraft. The new aircraft has been duly certified and is currently in service. Modern Logistics acquired its first 737-800 BCF late last year, which marked the first 737-800 ever within Brazil's logistics industry.
