Helping Patients Achieve Optimal Health

New York City, New York Jun 24, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - A trusted physician assistant Jeremy is accepting appointments at Slocum-Dickson Medical Group's New Hartford location. With a commitment to providing comprehensive and compassionate care to his patients, he has developed a special interest in managing type 2 diabetes and musculoskeletal conditions.

Pertaining to his educational pursuits, he holds a Bachelor of Arts in Social Industrial Psychology from the State University of New York Institute of Technology and a Master of Physician Assistant Studies from the State University of New York Upstate Medical University, where he graduated with high honors.

In addition to his clinical practice, he serves as an Adjunct Faculty Instructor at SUNY Polytechnic Institute on a part-time basis. His passion for educating the next generation of healthcare professionals reflects his ongoing commitment to excellence in patient care and medical education.

In 2012, Jeremy was honored with the prestigious Chancellor's Award for Student Excellence from the State University of New York, further solidifying his reputation as a top-tier healthcare provider.

When he's not in the clinic or classroom, he enjoys exploring the world through travel, hiking in nature's beauty, and capturing moments through his passion for photography. Iceland holds a special place in his heart as his favorite vacation destination, where he finds inspiration and rejuvenation.
