London, United Kingdom May 19, 2024 (IssueWire.com) - AFI won the Gold Award in the construction category for the 10th consecutive year, so it has been awarded the landmark RoSPA President's Award, which has been presented to those organisations that have achieved ten consecutive Gold Awards. AFI first won the RoSPA Gold Award in 2014.

The RoSPA Awards scheme, which receives entries from organisations worldwide, recognises achievement in health and safety management systems, including practices such as leadership and workforce involvement.

Ian Price, HSEQ Manager, AFI Group Services, said:

"We are delighted to win the RoSPA Gold for the 10th year and be awarded the prestigious President's Award for our health and safety performance. I am immensely proud to have continued with this award through the challenging last few years. The President's Award is a testament to the hard work of our people and our commitment to achieve consistent excellence in the practice of health and safety."

Julia Small, RoSPA's Achievements Director, said:

"Workplace accidents don't just pose financial risks and operational disruptions; they significantly impact the quality of life for individuals. This is why acknowledging and rewarding excellent safety performance is vital."

"We congratulate AFI for winning a prestigious RoSPA Award and showing an unwavering commitment to keeping employees, clients and customers safe from accidental harm and injury."

The esteemed RoSPA Awards program now celebrates its 68th year as the UK's largest and most impactful health and safety programme. With almost 2,000 entries annually from over 50 countries, impacting over seven million employees, they offer a platform to spotlight an unwavering commitment to continuous improvement and excellence in health and safety.
