

Emily K. Ward, MD: Pioneering Women's Digestive and Rectal Health

Championing Specialized Care and Advocating for Women in Medicine

New York City, New York Jun 12, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Louisville, Colorado – Dr. Emily K. Ward, a distinguished board certified gastroenterologist, is revolutionizing women's healthcare with a focus on digestive and rectal health. Her unwavering dedication to excellence and passion for supporting women in medicine have positioned her as a trailblazer in the field.

Dr. Ward's journey began at The Ohio State University College of Medicine, where she honed her skills in pediatrics and internal medicine. Her exceptional talents were further showcased during her tenure as Chief Resident of Internal Medicine at Ohio State. Subsequently, she pursued specialized training in gastroenterology at the University of Colorado, where she excelled as a Chief Gastroenterology Fellow.

Following her training, Dr. Ward co-owned and practiced in a private gastroenterology clinic, serving the communities of Broomfield, Boulder, and Denver counties. Here, she developed a deep-seated passion for addressing the unique digestive and rectal health challenges women face.

This realization led Dr. Ward to establish The Women's Digestive Wellness Project and GutsyRx in Louisville, Colorado, where she provides comprehensive care, including endoscopy and colonoscopy procedures, to women patients suffering from digestive issues.

With over two decades of experience, Dr. Ward is steadfast in her mission to reshape women's digestive and rectal healthcare. Beyond her clinical practice, she actively advocates for the sustainability of women patients and women in medicine. She is committed to bridging the gaps in women's digestive care and promoting overall wellness through a holistic approach to gastroenterology.

At the forefront of advancing women's health initiatives, Dr. Ward is a dedicated member of prestigious medical associations such as the American Gastroenterological Association, the American College of Gastroenterology, and the American Society for Gastrointestinal Endoscopy.

Outside of her professional endeavors, Dr. Ward finds solace in spending quality time with her ER doctor spouse, two young children, and friends. Her interests include hiking, skiing, and indulging in her love for reading and writing.
