

Lori Bunce, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2024 Top Agent

An Experienced Professional with a Passion for Real Estate and Community Involvement

New York City, New York Jun 3, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - Lori Bunce, a standout realtor at Keller Williams Classic Realty Northwest, brings a unique blend of dedication, enthusiasm, and expertise to the real estate market in Maple Grove, Minnesota. Growing up in the Twin Cities area, her deep-rooted connection to the community and her extensive knowledge of the local neighborhoods make her an invaluable asset to buyers, sellers, and investors.

Throughout her educational journey at Richfield High School, Normandale Community College, and Bethel University, Lori cultivated a passion for music education and theater, which she contributed to her community for 18 years. Transitioning her passion to residential real estate, she has excelled in assisting clients with their property goals for over 8 years, pleading her honesty and integrity.

Specializing in assisting first-time homebuyers and downsizers, Lori takes pride in highlighting the value of homes, fostering equity growth, and providing educational support throughout the entire transaction process. Her dedication to her clients goes above and beyond, offering staging services and personalized attention to ensure a smooth and successful real estate experience for all.

Lori's exceptional performance in the real estate market has not gone unnoticed, as she has been consistently recognized as a Top 10 Single Agent, with her most recent accolade received in March 2024. She attributes her success to her faith in God and the unwavering support of her office broker and team members.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Lori, alongside her husband Greg and their two children, founded Bunce Backyard Productions, a community-oriented and family-focused production company providing entertainment to the Twin Cities area since 2007. Through their annual musical productions, the Bunce family not only brings joy to the community but also raises funds for local charities, embodying their commitment to giving back.

With a passion for real estate, a heart for community service, and a proven track record of success, Lori Bunce continues to make a positive impact on the Maple Grove real estate market and the Twin Cities community as a whole.
