

Álvaro Tadeo debuts with “Abrázame” with Aymée Nuviola

Miami, Florida Jun 21, 2024 (Issuewire.com) - In a fusion of talents and styles, young singer Álvaro Tadeo presents his first single “Abrázame” with the help of multi-Grammy winner and tropical music icon Aymée Nuviola. This song, which was one of the hits of the 80's and popularized by Julio Iglesias, marks Álvaro Tadeo's recording debut and promises to be the beginning of a career full of successes.

“Abrázame” is the opening of Álvaro Tadeo's first album, which will be released in October of this year. The album will feature reimagined versions of classic hits from the 70's and 80's that were performed by Spanish artists.

Consequently, the song reflects the passion and intensity of feelings, inviting listeners to immerse themselves in a musical experience that goes beyond words. With a catchy melody and lyrics that resonate with human emotion, Álvaro Tadeo seeks to connect with his audience on a deeper level.

The production was carried out by the successful duo of Paulo Simeón and Roniel Alfonso Mella, who reunited to make this great album after the success obtained with the album “A Journey Through Cuban Music” by Aymée Nuviola, which won a Grammy, American and a Latin Grammy nomination.

It should be noted that Álvaro Tadeo Hernández Rodríguez, born in Santa Cruz de Tenerife (Canary Islands), Spain, has demonstrated his passion for music from a very young age. At the age of 7, he began taking singing classes and has participated in various musical events in Tenerife. His talent led him to compete in the first edition of Idol Kids Spain at the age of 10 and later in Voz Kids Spain at the age of 14.

“Abrázame” is an invitation to remember and enjoy the sound that defines an era. With the unique voice of Álvaro Tadeo and the musical experience of Aymée Nuviola, this single is a tribute to the musical roots that have inspired generations. Available on all streaming platforms:
